A GARDEN OF VERSES

Whether the pilot of your flight of imagination is Peter Pan or Harry Potter: whether your power plant is Robert Louis Stevenson or Robert Frost: come fly with me on a flight of fancy. Awaken your memories and the mind of a child by selecting a poem or piece of work that can fit on an 8.5 by 11 sheet. The Garden of Verses is the rope lined Phase III of Woodland Walkway ambling through a new shade garden of indigenous plants as you enter the woodlands of Armstrong-Kelly Park. The section leads to a wheel chair and stroller accessible deck featuring a train engine sculpted from cedar. The engine and a sculptured teddy bear are reminders of a two-year old whose laughter and joy were tied to a train engine. The O'Neil family sponsored the train and Liam's teddy for all to enjoy. The boardwalk artist, Reed Hayden, captured the essence of youth and laughter. Liam's Train, was dedicated on Saturday, May 14, 2005 for all to enjoy.

For a $300 donation to Cape Cod Horticultural Society (CCHS) you'll provide joy as you recall poems in your past. Each poem is engraved in black on beige background with the sponsor's name. The plaque is bolted to an aluminum plate, which is angle mounted on a Walkway post.

Sponsoring a poem will help to "grow" Armstrong-Kelly Park.

Come to the Park and see the formal and wild flower gardens, and the serenity of walking in the beautiful surroundings.

To post a Poem, please send your $300 check made out to "CCHS mail to CCHS, PO Box 934, Osterville, Ma 02655. (Attach a copy of the poem of your choice)
